Chapter 1: Going to a Planet

Once upon a time in a planet called Bright, Braveman had been sitting on a rock, and then one of his friends called him and said, “We need your help.”

Chapter 2: Taking Out Guns

He took on his jet packs. He flew all the way to City Planet. Then he noticed why his friend called him. He saw Plutos alien spaceships flying everywhere. They wanted to take over this place and make the people all their slaves. Then, he took out his guns: sniper rifles in his hands, and in his ten robotic hands, machine guns.

Chapter 3: Shooting

Braveman took out his guns. He was firing and firing. All the alien ships came down, and then an alien jumped down out of the mothership, and then all of the bazillion aliens came jumping down and firing.

Chapter 4: Motherships

Then, a thousand motherships surrounded the city. Then, there was a hundred thousand Plutos aliens. Braveman did not care because he was a big, cool superhero. He shot two aliens down.

Chapter 5: Will the Aliens Retreat

The aliens started shooting some more, but Braveman threw granades straight up, which hit the mother-ship, which hit another ship, which then hit other ships, until there were only two left. And then he shot them down. And then the King Alien said, “What in the world is going on here? Retreat!” But then he fell down and got killed with the rest of the aliens.
